Dear Sir,

TRANSFER/POSTING OF OFFICERS: EXTENSION OF DEADLINE

This is to inform that our Federation has been insisting upon completion of entire transfer exercise well before the commencement of academic season so as to enable our officers to take care of admission of their wards to schools/colleges and also enable them to settle down in their new place of posting, providing ample time to concentrate on achievement of business goals. In this direction, it was a welcome instruction from Corporate Centre to all the Circles that the transfer exercise has to be completed before 30.06.2019.

2. While stipulation of the outer date of 30th June should have prompted the functionaries across the circles to plan and implement the transfers, formulation of Circle Transfer Policy and addressing the grievances of officers, it appears that large scale transfer orders have been issued in the last few days of June'19, defeating the intent of planned and early transfers. We have received feedback from our affiliates that reasonable, substantiated requests of officers have not been considered. Many circles have not considered the transfers requests on compassionate grounds viz. last leg of service, working spouse, medical, care giver etc. due to paucity of time. In many circles, newly promoted officers are still to be posted/transferred. We understand that in Mumbai Metro and Maharashtra Circles, the movement of officers between these two Circles has just commenced. Transfer processes in many Circles have been stalled on the pretext that the last date of such exercise i.e. 30th June'19 has since been elapsed.

3. In view of the foregoing, we request you to permit the movement of officers in all the Circles up to 31st July 2019 as a special case for this year with the understanding that the officers who were transferred/repatriated beyond the stipulated date would be eligible for transfer/repatriation after the agreed tenure.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Soumya Datta)
General Secretary
