State Bank of India Officers' Association, Ahmedabad Circle
Triennial General Body Meeting at Sardar Smruti Bhavan, Shahibaug, Ahmedabad

The Triennial General Body Meeting of the State Bank of India Officers' Association, Ahmedabad Circle, was a vibrant event held on 8th June 2024 (Saturday) at the historic Sardar Smruti Bhavan in Shahibaug, Ahmedabad. The atmosphere was charged with Energy, Enthusiasm, and Enjoyment, reflecting the dedication of the Circle leadership towards the welfare of its members. The event saw a massive turnout, with over 1300 members gathering inside and outside the hall, showcasing their Commitment and Conviction to the Association.

2. Com. Ranjan Karan, General Secretary, and Com. Nilesh Radia, President of SBIOA, Ahmedabad Circle, along with the Executive Committee members, extended a warm welcome to all dignitaries and esteemed guests present.

3. The function was inaugurated by Shri. Kshitij Mohan, Deputy Managing Director, who previously held the position of Chief General Manager of the Circle. In his address, Shri. Mohan lauded the relentless dedication of the Circle members, recognizing their unwavering efforts in revitalizing Ahmedabad Circle's standing across various operational and financial metrics, despite grappling with staff shortages. He described a comprehensive roadmap aimed at further bolstering our bank's market share in deposits. He underscored the importance of embracing digital banking initiatives to meet the evolving needs of customers in today's digital age. Additionally, he emphasized the imperative of enhancing customer service standards, highlighting a commitment to leveraging innovation and efficiency to reinforce the Circle's competitive edge in the banking sector.

4. The function was graced by the esteemed presence of Dr. Nirja A Gupta, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor of Gujarat University, as the Chief Guest.

Dr. Gupta delivered an insightful address emphasizing the enduring importance of Indian cultural values in the contemporary competitive landscape. She underscored the role of these values in guiding ethical conduct and encouraged all members present to uphold these values in their professional endeavours, advocating for the delivery of excellent service characterized by fairness, empathy, and humility. She urged against any form of bias or arrogance, stressing the need for officers to approach their responsibilities with a deep respect for diversity and inclusivity. Her presence and insights served as an inspirational beacon, reinforcing the importance of upholding values that not only strengthen professional conduct but also contribute to the broader societal fabric.

5. Com. Deepak Kumar Sharma, the General Secretary of All India State Bank Officers' Federation and Senior Vice President of All India Bank Officers' Confederation (AIBOC) expressed his admiration for the Circle leadership's adept organization of the event. He commended their meticulous planning and execution, which contributed to the event's success and the uplifting experience it provided to all attendees. Furthermore, he extended his heartfelt congratulations to Shri. Kshitij Mohan on his recent promotion to Deputy Managing Director. He praised Shri. Mohan's leadership and vision, recognizing his contributions in steering the Circle towards greater heights and ensuring sustained progress amidst challenges.

6. In his address, Com. Sharma highlighted the collaborative efforts between the Circle management and the association, emphasizing how this partnership has been instrumental in advancing the welfare and interests of the members. He acknowledged the proactive role played by both association and management in addressing the concerns and aspirations of the officer community within the circle. His address underscored the spirit of unity and cooperation essential for nurturing a supportive environment for all officers within the organization.

7. Com. Rupam Roy, General Secretary of All India Bank Officers' Confederation and President of AISBOF, conveyed sincere appreciation to the disciplined gathering for their unwavering trust in the leadership of SBIOA, AISBOF, and AIBOC. He highlighted significant milestones achieved through the recent bipartite settlement, which encompassed crucial benefits like stagnation increments and enhanced working conditions. Emphasizing the pivotal role of unity, he underscored its importance in cultivating a cohesive and resilient officer community within SBI. He also stressed the need for professionalism in social media usage, cautioning against actions that could tarnish the image of SBI officers and the organization at large.
