DATE : 02.08.2011

TO,
ALL MEMBERS

CONCILIATION TALKS BEFORE CHIEF LABOUR COMMISSIONER
NO POSITIVE OUTCOME – ONE MORE ROUND OF CONCILIATION
MEETING ON 3RD AUG, 2011 - HOWEVER, UFBU DECIDES TO CONTINUE
WITH THE STRIKE CALL

We reproduce hereunder the text of AISBOF Circular No.71 dt. 01.08.2011 on the captioned subject, the contents of which are self-explicit.

TEXT

" In response to the strike notice served on the Indian Banks Association by the United Forum of Bank Unions, Mr. N.K. Prasad, Chief Labour Commissioner, Ministry of Labour, Government of India held a conciliation meeting today in his office at Shram Sakthi Bhavan, Delhi.

2. Representatives of the UFBU as well as the Indian Banks Association (IBA) were present in the conciliation meetings.

3. From UFBU we explained the demands in detail and urged upon the CLC to intervene for settlement of the issues. IBA submitted their counter-response to our demands and virtually rejected our demands saying that some of the issues like compassionate appointment scheme, uniform staff housing loan scheme, etc. are pending consideration by the Government and many of the issues raised by UFBU are policy matters of the Government. CLC exhorted the IBA and the Unions to explore the possibility to find solutions to the issues by bilateral talk's atleast on those issues where IBA can take decisions. With this, the conciliation proceedings have been deferred to 3-8-2011.

4. Going by today's proceedings, it is clear that the IBA and Government are not taking our issues seriously and hence UFBU decided to go ahead with the strike call.

5. We call upon all our affiliates and members to implement the strike call and make the strike a total success."

With warm greetings,

(ANIRUDH AKHAURI)
GENERAL SECRETARY
